WELCOME & TERRITORIAL ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Hadih, welcome in the name of the Christ.

All: Welcome to this place of worship, situated on the Ancestral and unceded lands of the Lheidli T'enneh people.

Welcome to this place of blessing, this space of grace, and this holy sanctuary. This place where we discern how to live into the way of Jesus.

All: We gather this morning to share in song, word, prayer, to publicly, intentionally, and explicitly affirm that we are all an expression of the divine's holy light.

Be welcomed.

All: Be present.

Be a blessing.

GATHERING PRAYER (Responsive)

God of immeasurable love, you have no favourites and make no system of hierarchy, where some are valued higher than others.

Forgive us for our apathy, for our lack of courage to speak out against injustice. Forgive us when we walk past and fail to offer solutions.

Forgive us when we get things wrong and add to others' plight.

We confess that we are afraid sometimes— of taking the bold approach and speaking out against discrimination of any kind. We doubt ourselves and our ability to change things. Too often we are slow to come alongside those who are different from us, and especially those who are suffering within prejudicial systems.

We ask that you lead us into action: give us strength to be a voice crying for justice and peace. Help us peel off our preconceptions and assumptions and be more ready to step into the shoes of others, and to realise the unacceptability of the way so many systems and institutions maintain injustice and prejudice in our world.

May we be a liberating presence and offer love, compassion and whatever is needed: to act justly, love mercy and walk humbly with you our God. Amen.

AFFIRMING GODS LOVE AND GRACE

God loves you with a love so deep and so broad That anything is possible.

With God's grace and love we too can dare resurrection in our lives. As people created in the full complexity of the image of God, we too can embody reconciliation and healing in the world.
