CALL TO WORSHIP (Responsive)

One: In all the light that shapes a mystery, a word is heard

Many: Calling us, inviting us, to dare believe what we do not yet understand.

One: Calling us, inviting us to gather in the mystery

Many: This is our time of worship, we honour the invitation with our attention and care. We honour the traditions of our faith with reverence and rejoicing.

One: Come, let us walk in this good way, let us belong to one another, just as we belong to God

Lighting the Christ Candle:

Transfiguration Sunday Prayer: (unison standing as able)

We turn to embrace the rising Sun. The fire that burns brilliantly in the morning sky. Its glow gleams in the growing earth and glistens in sea and sky.

[turn east with hands outstretched for silent reflection]

We turn to embrace the dazzling Son.

May his fire burn in our hearts.

May his glow gleam through our actions and glisten in our love for others.

[turn west with hands outstretched for silent reflection]

Amen.

GROUNDING IN THE HOLY ONE EMBRACING GOD'S LOVE AND GRACE (Unison)

We sing of God the Spirit, faithful and untamable, who is creatively and redemptively active in the world. Divine creation does not cease until all things have found wholeness, union, and integration with the common ground of all being. Creator, we turn toward your love and grace with open hearts, knowing that as you so freely offer it, we must reach back toward you to receive it. Your love and grace is for all, a well so deep there is always enough for each one of us. Amen

THE SACRAMENT OF COMMUNION

One: We are not alone!

Lift up your hearts.

Many: We lift them up to God.

One: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

Many: It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Holy Mystery that is Wholly Love,
you are beyond complete knowledge,
above perfect description.

Creator, Christ, and Holy Spirit;
Source of Life, Living Word, and Bond of Love,
you are creative and self-giving,
generously moving.

In all the near and distant corners of the universe.
nothing exists that does not find its source in you.

Even when we turn away from you, you are with us;
your presence never fails us,
your gifts of hope and new life transform us.

We praise you for Jesus Christ,
eternal as your love, our bond to one another.
We rejoice with all your people of every time and place,
and with angels and archangels,
to proclaim the glory of your name we sing:

Sanctus and Benedictus (More Voices 203)

Holy, holy, holy are you.
Holy, holy, blessed are you.

It is Jesus, God incarnate, the Risen Christ, who joins us together as a community of broken but hopeful believers:

loving what he loved living what he taught, and striving to be his faithful servants
in our time and place.

In this meal we remember Jesus, his promises, and the price he paid for who he was, what he said, and what he did. And we share the prayer that Jesus taught his disciples:

Our Creator....

Amen

On the night before Jesus died,
he took a loaf of bread,
gave thanks, broke it, and said,
“Take and eat; whenever you do this, remember me.”
After supper, Jesus took the cup, and poured, saying,
“This is the new covenant, remember me.”

All: We do remember. We remember his life of love, his friendship, his teaching, his dying, and his rising to life again.

In sharing this meal, we live out the mystery of our faith

MV# 204 Memorial Acclamation

Holy Mystery, God the Spirit,
we call on you to transform these familiar things,
as you continually transform the world around us.

Bless this bread and this cup,
the wheat and the grape,
the farmer and the harvest,
the seed and the sower.

So that in the sharing of these simple elements in community,
we may taste and see your goodness,
so that we might catch a glimpse of what it is to be in communion with you and with one another.

Through Christ, in Christ, and with Christ,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
all glory is yours, God most holy,
now and forever.

Great Amen (MV#205)

Come and eat, for the table is ready.

Breaking the Bread, Pouring the Cup

The body of Christ,
the bread of life.

The lifeblood of Christ,
the cup of blessing.

The gifts of God for the people of God.
Thanks be to God!

Prayer after Communion (unison)
Thank you, O Christ, for this feast of life.
We are fed by your love; we are strengthened by your life.
We are sent forth into this world to live into the visions
God has laid on our hearts.
We are now commissioned to:
feed as we have been fed,
forgive as we have been forgiven,
love as we have been loved.
Thanks be to God.
Amen.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE SHARING OUR GIFTS FOR MINISTRY

OFFERTORY PRAYER (Unison)
Gracious God, We bring these tokens of our recognition for your abundant gifts. We bring these gifts that they may be transformed by the hands of your community to bring Peace. We bring ourselves that we may share in the co-creating of your peace, and that we might too, partake and experience it with others. Holy One, we ask that you would bless these gifts, multiply them, bring the deep peace of Shalom to your people.

Amen.
